THE REVENGE.

BY ELIZA S. PRATT.

CHAPTER II.

It was midsummer and the full moon was shining through the open door and windows, making the room almost as light as with the blaze of a candle. As the two left it on their fiendish errand, a tall, graceful figure glided from the outer angle of the porch and softly entered the door. He was very young and handsome, but with a cheek too highly bronzed for a native; besides a something peculiar in his looks and manner betrayed him, even in the moonlight, to be a foreigner. He hesitated a moment, eagerly glanced about the room, then cautiously followed the direction the two had taken.

Arrived at the head of the stairs, he paused, uncertain which way to go, but smothered voices from the apartment beyond reached his ear, and thither he directed his steps. The men had left the door ajar, and the stranger so stationed himself without, that, completely concealed in the shade, he could watch all that was going on within. Kentland he noticed concealed himself behind a curtain, while Crawford approached with the light to awaken the sleeping victim.

Beautiful was that sleeping girl! The moon-beams stole in through the open curtains and lay in their silvery whiteness on that unrivalled face and form, more beautiful than sculptor ever fashioned from the stainless marble. She was in a profound sleep. One fair rounded arm, which had partially escaped from the night dress, lay above her head, the small white hand half buried in a mass of black shining hair, which seemed like a thing of life as it lay fluttering with her innocent breath upon the snowy pillow. Her lips were of a deep crimson, but the cheek and brow, scarcely touched with carmine, were of that slightly dark but pure hue, so indicative of a southern climate. The long black lashes lay in deep relief on her cheek, and her deeply arched and highly pencilled eye-brows gave an expression of depth and tenderness to the whole countenance. The gradual rising and falling of the drapery which lay above her bosom told of the deep and dreamless sleep of the intended victim.

Could a demon of darkness be painted, Crawford would be a fit subject for one, as with his low frowning brow, his blood-shot eyes, and a mouth in which seemed combined the expression of every evil passion, he slowly approached the bed of her whom he had reared as his own daughter, by his own hearth stone, to awaken her to her doom. He held the candle so that the light fell strongly upon her face—passed it two or three times back and forth, and with a slight tremor she awoke.

With what different feelings the three gazed upon the young girl as she opened those dark, soul-full eyes! He who had come with the terrible purpose of revenge in his heart, glatted his eye in her wondrous loveliness, with the joy of a demon. And he who had bruted himself to the world as the FATHER, gazed like the midnight murderer with a drawn sword and relentless heart!

But singular emotions were awakening in the breast of the young stranger, as he looked unknown to the others. He stood with the miniature of a young child in his hand, gazing eagerly from one to the other, from the lineaments of his lost sister, to those of the maiden before him. With each successive look his dark eyes grew larger and larger, until at length the young girl awoke and thrust back the shadowy hair from her brow. That moment seemed the balancing of fate; large tears of ineffable joy and delight rolled down the bronzed cheek of the youthful stranger, as clasping his jewelled fingers together he breathed in a hushed whisper, 'My God! it is she—MY LOST SISTER!'

He had accidentally overheard the conversation below. In passing, his attention was arrested by the name MELANTHE—he paused, listened, heard the account of the stolen child and the plot of the two villains; He well knew the manner of his sister's abduction, and the similarity of names awoke an ardent sympathy in his breast, not unmingled with curiosity, and, perhaps, hope. He determined to save the young girl, and thus stole in unobserved after the two men. Now hope seemed merged into an almost certainty; yet still he kept his position, and with dimmed eyes and trembling form—watched the proceedings within the chamber.

'Is it you, father?' said Melanthe, opening her eyes with a smile, and fixing them on Crawford, who had taught her from infancy to call him by that endearing name. She seemed unconscious of the terrific expression of his countenance; but, raising herself, pleasantly extended her hand to him.

'I suppose it is morning, and I have had a long, sweet sleep—but no, the moon shines! what brings you here at this hour?'

Crawford did not take her hand, but it dropped listlessly on the quilt as she patiently awaited his answer.

'It is not morning, child,' said he in a voice strangely husky, as if the guilt of his purpose would force itself through some outlet—it is not morning, and I have come to awake you for—for another visitor than myself.'

The poor girl shuddered visibly; but it was only as he went on that she drank in the fullness of his meaning.

'Listen to me, girl,' said he, placing the light upon the table, and drawing a chair by the bedside—'listen to me, girl, for the time has come for you to know the secret for which you have been reared. And first—know that you are no daughter of mine!—No particle of my blood, however remote, flows in your veins. You are an Italian by birth—I am an Englishman. How you came into my possession, is not for you to know; but it is for you to know, that I have reared, educated, fed and clothed you from your infancy upward. An immense debt has accumulated on your hands, and the time has at length arrived for the reckoning; I MUST HAVE BACK THE GOLD THAT YOUR REARING COST!

(Concluded to-morrow.)

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1846.

CONGRESS.—This body will convene at Washington on the 7th of next month, and must adjourn again, by law, on the 4th of the ensuing March, so that they will only have twelve weeks, in which to perform a very large amount of work, which the exigencies of the times require at their hands. The annual message of the President will be looked for with more than ordinary interest, as the state of our affairs are such that he will have a vast amount of important information to communicate, particularly in relation to our existing difficulties with Mexico. We shall then know the precise state of things, the amount that has been expended in prosecuting the war, the prospect of an adjustment of the troubles, and, above all, the manner in which Santa Anna entered Vera Cruz, and the cause for permitting him to do so. These are all subjects in which the people have a deep and vital interest, and the Message will therefore be sought after with great avidity, by all parties and classes. The action of Congress on our Mexican affairs will probably be of such a decided nature, as will give a new character to the matter; it will be the height of folly to procrastinate the war to an indefinite length of time, and if the disagreement cannot be settled, we presume it will be the policy of Congress to make such arrangements to prosecute it with renewed vigor, as will conquer our enemies to peace, in the quickest possible time.

The Court of Common Pleas, for Newport County, Judge HAILE presiding, commences its November term in this town to-day. We understand that there are a larger number of cases, than usual, on the docket for trial.

Several attempts have been made, during the last week, to enter three different dwelling houses, in Kay street, during the night-time. These light-fingered gentry must beware how they attempt to operate in Newport, for, if they are detected, the very mildest punishment of the law will consign them to the State Prison for eight years. Where is the Watch, that they do not discover these night-workers, and secure them, so that they may be brought to justice?

SKIRMISH BETWEEN THE GEORGIA REGIMENT AND SOME RANCHEROS.—A letter from Captain Calhoun, of the Georgia volunteers, dated Monterey, Oct. 12th, states that on the 11th there was a skirmish about six miles from Monterey, between a part of the Georgia regiment, on its way from Camargo, and a body of the marauding rancheros, under Canales.

The Georgians were commanded by Lt. Horne, and began the attack; they made ten of the rancheros prisoners, killed one and captured some baggage. Several were wounded. None of the Georgians were killed or wounded.

There is nothing later from the Gulf Squadron.

The receipts at the New York custom house the last week are estimated at $395,000.

THE SWINDLERS.—Those who went in pursuit of the swindlers who were in this town on Saturday, passing altered bills, have returned without being able to apprehend them. They tracked them as far as New Bedford, where they ascertained that they took a fresh horse, and had gone on towards Boston. The New Bedford police are on the alert for them.

We understand that a gang of swindlers were arrested in Fall River on Saturday, for passing altered bills, and they undoubtedly are connected with the gang that was here. Those who were here belong in New Bedford, and are well known there.

SMOKERS, BEWARE.—The attention of smokers is directed to a Town By-Law, in another column, in regard to smoking in the streets, nights.

LARGE APPLES.—Twenty ounces we call a pretty good weight for one apple. Rider has some that weigh that much.

The Roger Williams, and Perry were compelled to lay over again yesterday, on account of the violence of the wind.

The True American is about to be revived, early in the ensuing year, by the late editor, who is a native of South Carolina, by the name of Vaughan. Since Cassius M. Clay's absence, Mr. Vaughan has edited the paper with much ability.

The total deficit in the Mechanics' Bank, Baltimore, by the frauds of Turner, is ascertained to be $60,000 thus far. The Bank has a sinking fund of $100,000.

Fifty horses shipped at Memphis for the Army, were drowned on the way to New Orleans, by the sinking of a flat boat.

BANGOR JAIL.—There are but two persons now in Jail in this city, says the Mercury, charged with the commission of crime, and strange to say, both are preachers of the Gospel. Elder Douglass and a Rev. Mr. Fowler.

VERA CRUZ, Oct. 25, 1846.—Santa Anna, it is thought, will be able to raise 20,000 men, and it is understood he will intrench himself at San Luis Potosi and wait the arrival of Gen. Taylor at that point, when he will give him battle. If Taylor whips Santa Anna at Potosi, the war will be at an end. The whole resources of the country are concentrating at that point. The U. S. schooner Petrel was in at Sacrificios a day or two since, and returned to Anton Lizardo. A ship and brig of war are now in sight of the castle.

TRINITY CHURCH, NEW YORK.—At a meeting of the Vestry of Trinity Church, the Rev. M. P. Parks, the present chaplain of the Military Academy at West Point, was elected an assistant minister of that parish.

BANGOR LUMBER.—The quantity of sawed lumber surveyed the present season will amount to about one hundred and fifty million feet; falling short of the survey of last year between twenty and thirty million feet. Short lumber brings higher prices now than for several years past.

REVIVAL IN THE NAVY.—Rev. Walter Colton, chaplain of the U. S. ship Congress, in a recent letter from Monterey, California, says:—

"There is a deep interest among a large section of our crew on the subject of religion. It commenced two months back in my Bible class, and extended to others. I now hold a prayer meeting three evenings in the week, in a retired and very convenient apartment of our ship, and usually meet there about sixty sailors—about thirty of them have become hopelessly pious. I invite them to pray and speak to the others, which they do with great fervency. Some new one comes in almost every evening, and kneeling down asks to be prayed for. Among the converts are some of the best seamen in our ship. Several of the officers have attended—our meetings have no opposition from any quarter. This is all the work of the good Spirit, and I pray he may remain among us. I am the only chaplain out here, and officiate alternately on board the Congress and the frigate Savannah."

CONSUMPTION.—There is, perhaps, no disease with which our country is affected, which sweeps off annually so many victims, as that fell destroyer of the human race—Consumption. Day after day, year after year, the insatiate monster hurries to the portals of the cold and silent tomb fresh added victims to its conquest. No walk of life is sacred from its blighting influence. No age is exempt from its death dealing shafts. The old, the middle-aged and the young, all alike, are food for this common enemy of mankind. The white-haired patriarch, whose life of temperance has rendered his system impervious to the attacks of other ills, and whose good deeds prepared him for the enjoyment of life's calm evening, finds consumption fastening its fangs upon his vitals, and tearing him from a world, ever bright to minds which look complacently on days well spent.

Is there no help for the afflicted? No preventive of the dangers which beset us in our changeable and sickle clime! We think there may be. And if the allegations of those who are at least entitled to veracity, may be believed, there is a preventive and a remedy.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is offered to a suffering world as such. It needs not the "adventitious aid" of a long string of fictitious certificates to give it notoriety. Its true value and intrinsic excellence are sufficient to entitle it to the confidence of the public, and "Wait on to fame"

the name of its inventor, as a benefactor of his species.

None genuine, unless signed J. Ditts on the wrapper. Nov 15 1w.

Dr. Dunning's Patent Body Laxative, For Weakness of the Body.

The following letter is submitted to a discerning public, and the proprietor is enabled to refer to many individuals—whose testimony will satisfy the most incredulous. Be particular and get Dunning's Laxative, and be put off with nothing else.

WARREN, August 22, 1846.

Dr. Boardman.—Dear Sir:—Now being about leaving for home, I am able to give thus far a favorable account of the Laxative which I have worn only four days. For more than four years I have suffered greatly from dyspepsia, that scourge of our race. My food has always been so troublesome that my stomach would reject it almost every day—my bowels always constipated—my head always feeling heavy and unpleasant, and my spirits greatly depressed. I was unfitted for any regular business, and till I saw you, I had given up the hope of ever being better. I had consulted many physicians and in Boston, those the most celebrated, and spent nearly all the money I could earn, upon them and medicines. Since I have worn the Laxative, all these symptoms have in a great degree vanished, and now, it seems to me, I shall be well again. I find my body regaining its erect position—the spitting up my food is pretty much over, my spirits and energy are returning, and I feel like a new man.

CLOTHING. CLOTHING. Large enough for the largest man, and small enough for the smallest boy.

We warrant men a perfect fit,
That's not the most successful hit?
For with their matchlessness of cut,
For more celebrity we've got;
Small gain on one alone we reap,
But here's our motto—"we sell cheap."

At the great
OREGON CLOTHING WARE HOUSE,
Corner of Thames & Franklin Streets.

May be seen the largest and most splendid assortment of Ready Made Clothing ever offered in the town of Newport, at prices which cannot fail to suit, and a little superior and cheaper, than at any other similar establishment in the town. These goods cannot be surpassed, if equalled, for neatness, taste, elegance, and durability. This well selected stock was bought on the cash system, and can and will be sold cheap. Come now all ye, while the doors are open unto you, and be clothed from the crown of your head to the soles of your feet.

Among the above named articles may be found
Coats,

Which dignify the human form—
As beautiful as they are warm.

Pilot Coats.
They cost mere nothing, and so stout,
It takes you years to wear them out.

Bever and Broadcloths.
They seem forever fresh and bright,
And give the wearer great delight.

Dress Coats,
Cut, pressed, and made in tasty manner—
They win the envy of the scanner.

Pantaloon.
Finn stitches, tightly drawn, and strong—
The reason why they last so long.

Vests and Scarfs.
There's nothing can adorn the breast
So well as can a handsome Vest,
But what's a Vest without a Scarf?
It's like a smile without a laugh;
It loses half its expression.

No man should think of such aggression.
Also may be found Collars, Bosoms, Shirts,
Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Suspenders, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, and all other articles generally worn by the Male part of the community. Don't forget the Oregon Clothing Ware House corner of Thames and Franklin Streets.

Genuine Bears Oil—Highly
Perfumed.—Perhaps our ladies and fashionables are not aware that three quarters of the 'Bear's oil' (so called,) with which they anoint their locks, wondering that it does them so little good, is nothing in the world but hog's lard, so highly scented as to escape detection, save on close examination. This, however, is simply the fact, and one that ought to be known. The only safe way is to purchase your Bear's Oil of HENRY JOHNSON, who gets it direct from Canada, and the North Western territory, and who never sells an ounce until he knows it to be genuine. The real Bear's oil is a wonderful beautifier and strengthener of the hair, and should be used by every one desirous of beautiful locks.

Bogle's Hyperion Fluid, Or Vegetable Hair Composition.

THE subscriber has been induced to bring this article before the public, at the request of his numerous customers, among whom are physicians and citizens of the first respectability, who have adopted its use in their families, and wish others to participate in its advantages.

The Hyperion is composed of vegetable ingredients, the secret of compounding and blending which is known solely to the subscriber. It is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture never before attained, yet free of animal grease or essential oils. It clears the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action in the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which feed the hair, thereby preventing BALDNESS AND GREY HAIR.

It entirely frees the skin from Scurf, Dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and changes the hardest hair into the most soft, glossy, and healthy state, also imparts to it a darker color, and the free use of it, both on the skin and hair, in a most healthy and luxuriant state until the latest period of life.

Ladies will find the Hyperion a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the fluid, can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls.—
When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

Manufactured and for sale by WM. BOGLE, ton. Sold in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. BANNING'S PATENT LACE!

An immediate Relief to Incipient Consumption, the Bronchitis of Public Speakers, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Spinal Weakness, Piles, Protrusion, and Diseases of Women, without Medicines.

THIS instrument has been examined by Drs. Mott, Rodgers, Francis, and Grison of New York, the faculty of Pittsburgh, Hartford, New Haven and Middletown, and has obtained for itself their favorable testimony. The following will show what kind of testimony might be produced in many cases:

Middletown, June, 25th, 1843.

Dr. Boardman,

Sir—In answer to your inquiry respecting my case, I will merely say, that I have been sick since I strained my breast and loins in May, 1836, from that time continued to grow worse, when in the fall of '39, I abandoned business, and have not done any thing since. I suppose from all I could learn about my case—frequently raising blood, coughing very hard and expectorating profusely, deriving no benefit from my physicians, and all medicines recommended to me, that my case was hopeless. Last winter my brother told me he had heard a good account of Dr. Banning's Lace in such cases, and was anxious that I should try it; accordingly I procured one from you, and since I began to wear it, my breathing, which was very short and laborious, has become easy and natural; the pain and fluttering or palpitation of the heart has subsided; cough and expectoration greatly lessened; my limbs which were exceedingly painful have become useful, so that I can walk comfortably. I am able to shave myself with comfort, which for many years I have not been able to do. The piles, which have troubled me for nine years, are nearly eradicated. I work some in the garden, and am able to ride 4 miles at once with pleasure and benefit. Yours, &c. Wm. RANNEY

Dr. G. M. Boardman,

Middletown, June 25, 1843.

Dr. Boardman,

Dear Sir—In answer to your inquiries respecting the effect of Dr. Banning's Lace in the case of my wife, I will state that for twenty years past, she has been afflicted with a complication of complaints to which females are subject. She has tried all the physicians and all the medicines recommended for such complaints, without regard to expense, and found only temporary relief. Her most distressing complaints, palpitation of the heart, oppression and a sense of great weight at the pit of the stomach, protrusion of the womb, &c., were believed after wearing the lace two hours, and she has continued to improve daily. With this view of the case I cannot use language strong enough to convey my approval of the instrument. aug. 20th.

STEPHEN BROOKS, JR.

Providence, Feb. 26, 1846.

Doctor Boardman,—Dear Sir—I now take my pen to inform you that my wife's health has improved very fast for the last two weeks from wearing one of your Laces. She has been out of health about two years and has worn a different Supporter from yours, which had only two pads. She received some benefit from that—but it would not produce a cure. But now I can say with pleasure that she is as smart as any of the young girls in the neighborhood. She can now run up and down stairs as fast as I can, and I feel so well pleased with it that I hardly know how or what to write. But one thing I do now, that she has been under the care of seven Doctors in one year—and wearing your Lace two weeks has or will do the cure in a very short time. I want to write more, but I have no time. I am truly, your friend and well wisher, J. * *

Clove Anodyne Toothache Drops.—The Clove Anodyne is the best of all Toothache remedies. It is immediate and certain in its effects, curing the most violent toothache, or pain in the gums in ten minutes.

Experience has proved that this Anodyne composition will give immediate and permanent relief, after the failure of every other remedy; it is pleasant to the taste and smell, and will not injure the teeth or gums in any way, and a few applications will entirely renovate the pain and soreness from a decayed tooth, so that it may be filled and rendered useful as ever. When the pain proceeds from the face or gums around a tooth apparently sound, this application will give speedy relief, by rubbing a few drops to the part affected.—Price 25 cts. Prepared and sold by HENRY JOHNSON, Chemist and Druggist, 273 Broadway, corner of Chambers-st., in the granite building. Sold in Newport by R. R. HAZARD, near the Court House. Oct 27 6m

From the Brooklyn Daily Advertiser.

A BEAUTIFUL YOUNG LADY residing in W. street in this city, has received great and unexpected benefit from the use of that excellent specific RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP. Some few weeks since she was on a visit to some of her relatives in South New Jersey, where she was very severely bitten by mosquitoes, being at the same time very much exposed to the scorching rays of the Sun, she experienced great pain, and irritation from the effects of the mosquito, and much annoyance from the unnatural darkness of her tanned complexion. We recommended her to use that excellent Medicated Compound, RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP; she complied with our request, and in three days there was not a single spot, blemish, pimple or blotch left upon her skin, and her complexion is now as fair as the lily.

Ladies, secure without delay a cake of this inestimable Soap, it will purify your skin, improve your complexion and remove all disfigurements entirely from the surface of your system. Price 12-12 cents per cake. Sold in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR, Agent. Aug 7

IT is now about ten years since this medicine has been introduced to the public, and it stands unrivalled in its effects, bearing the test of the severe scrutiny of all classes, both friendly and unfriendly. It is but for one purpose—for the use of Mothers who have to pass through a sea of affliction in giving birth to mankind, not to be described. It is to you we make an appeal: It is for your especial and general good that you should make use of one bottle of the MOTHER'S RELIEF before confinement. Then you can approach the parturient chamber without feeling as if you were going to the chamber of death. You may rest assured it will still all forborne and nervous affection. It soothes and shields from irritation and by its peculiar properties it destroys the cause of hemorrhage or inflammation that so often attend and follow the hour of parturition. It causes sweet and natural rest, and at last facilitates the birth, so that Mothers have not to pass through such excruciating pain and distress. The Mother's Relief may be depended upon in all cases of threatening abortion where it is possible to be prevented in cases of Spasms, &c., causing frequent alarm, from two to three doses will give immediate relief.

As the subject is one that cannot with propriety be fully discussed in this public manner, we invite all who feel interested to call on our agents (most of the respectable Druggists in the United States,) or on the manufacturer, and they will be furnished with a pamphlet in which they will find all the facts to form a correct opinion of its merits, and also the opinions of many physicians of eminence, and of persons who have become acquainted with its beneficial effects.

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.—Ask for Bannock's Mother's Relief. None is genuine unless our signatures are found within the wreath of the direction that is pasted on the bottle, signed with our own hand, and over the neck of the bottle is a facsimile of our own hand writing also. By attending to the above directions, no one need be imposed upon. All orders will be promptly attended to. DR. G. A. BARTHOLOIC,

LORRAINE'S PILLS.

All persons require: Facts. DR. LORRAINE'S CURATIVE SYSTEM OF MEDICINE is rapidly producing achievements never before known in the cure of diseases. The immensity of its wonderful results, alone demonstrate that its principles must be founded on truth. The relative proportion of Cures by this Medicine is out of all proportion greater, than by any other Medicine known.

THE THEORY is, that one blood beats in the bosom, and flows through the body of every man, and must be pure, it is the Vital Principle that sustains life.

Physicians, and people of every class are willing to come forward and announce, in the most public manner that they have been cured of long standing complaints—after another medicines had failed. In fact there can be no doubt but that Lorraine's vegetable Pill is the best medicine ever offered to the public.

See a few public statements of men of truth and virtue.

Lynn, Dec. 17th, 1843.

Sir: I have sold all the pills I last had of you, please send another lot immediately. The sale of Lorraine's vegetable Pills is rapidly on the increase, they are becoming very popular. I sell more and more every day. As curative medicines and purifier of the blood. I think they stand unrivalled. One fact I have noticed, that no one that has used them finds any fault with them; they have wrought some very great cures. One lady, who has been confined to the house and bed, a great part of the time, for twenty years, is now cured and able to work most of her time, after having taken 3 boxes only of Lorraine's Pills! I might name many other cases where the cures have been as great, but have not time. Yours respectfully,

J. E. F. MARSH.

Portland, Me., Nov. 7th, 1843.

Sir: Please send us one gross of Lorraine's Pills, we have sold all we had last. They have given very good satisfaction, better than any other pills which we have in our market. I think in a short time they will take the place of others; We have had no fault found with them whatever; but, on the contrary, they have been praised highly. I think we could have quite a number of highly respectable certificates from our citizens.

Yours respectfully,

E. MASON.

Chelsa, Jan. 3d, 1844.

Sir: I transmit to you an account of my case for publication, believing it to be my duty. I have been confined with the Rheumatism nearly the whole winter, have had some of the best physicians of Boston and could get nothing that would relieve me more than temporarily. I heard of the wonderful virtue of Lorraine's Pills, I had no faith whatever, but I took them, and it is a solemn fact that when I had taken but eight pills my Rheumatism had entirely left me, and I have remained well ever since.

N. B. I never took more than one pill at a time and that on going to bed.

Yours respectfully, W. M. HALSTAD.

OPINION OF A SKILFUL PHYSICIAN.

Sir, the operation of Lorraine's Pills is past any philosophy to find out, how so small a Pill can produce such wonderful effects. I find that one of them will operate more than 3 or 4 of any other Pill, yet in their operation, mild, gentle and comforting. On this account, they are more than 100 percent, cheaper, as physis, than any other Medicine I know of.

These Pills are now acknowledged by thousands who take them daily, to be the only medicine that fairly takes the Banner from all others. This extraordinary medicine has actually done Wonders within one year past. They cause no pain or uneasiness of any kind in their operation, and require neither change of diet or care of any kind.

The attention of the reader is respectfully called to the important results from the use of these Pills. It will be seen, however great achievements have heretofore been made by the use of this invaluable medicine, still greater and more remarkable cures daily happen.
